TUITION INFORMATION FOR NEW FAMILIES

Tuition for the 2017-2018 school year is $10,350 and includes all fees except special grade-level field trips fees, school shirt costs, and other optional fees including lunch fees, PA dues, and after-school activity costs.

We offer a special first year discount called Bruchim Habayim which means "Welcome" in Jewish tradition. All families in which neither parent has, at any time previously, had a student attend the N.E. Miles Jewish Day School, are eligible for a 25% off the 2017-2018 tuition.

For all students of new families, tuition is $7,762 for 2017-2018.

The actual cost of educating a student at NEMJDS is approximately $18,900. Tuition is subsidized through Birmingham Jewish Federation allocations, the Birmingham Jewish Foundation, fundraisers, and the generosity of community-wide donations.

TUITION ASSISTANCE:

All tuition assistance requests must be completed and filed by March 17, 2017.

All families requesting tuition assistance must use FACTS - an independent agency designed to assess ability to pay for private school education. Applications are reviewed anonymously by the Tuition Assistance Committee. Tuition assistance recipients are responsible for all tuition, fees and expenses in excess of the assistance awarded.

- 1. Go to our website, click on admissions, then click on tuition and financial aid.
- 2. Forms must be completed on line with the latest tax year documents and a $27 processing fee.
- 3. No consideration for tuition assistance will be made unless application to FACTS is completed and all required documentation to FACTS has been submitted along with your completed enrollment form and $350 non-refundable registration fee paid in full.

For questions regarding tuition assistance, contact Director of Business and Human Resources, Susan Biedinger at sbiedinger@nemjds.org or 879-1068 x34.
